

WHAT TO PREACH?

2 Timothy 4:1-2

INTRODUCTION

- A. Most preachers contemplating a sermon wonder what should be addressed.
- B. A good example is that of the apostle Peter, seen in Acts 10.
  - 1. First, there are certain desirable traits characteristic of Peter (vs. 22, 23, 29; 25, 26; 29).
  - 2. We can also see what Peter preached (Acts 10: 34-43).
- C. Therefore, The traits of Peter: such as, promptitude, knew his place; to the point....Peter preached that God is no respecter, truth is fixed, man works righteousness as opposed to the doctrine of imputation, and he preached reverence, Jesus, and remission of sins.
