

“Why Did Jesus Die?”

(Luke 24:44-47)

Introduction

- I. There is more than just one answer to the question.
- II. In fact, some of the reasons He died may not even be known to many people.

Discussion

- I. The most known reason is to forgive us of our sins (1 Cor. 15:3; Matt. 26:28).
- II. To reconcile God and man (2 Cor. 5:17-19; John 12:32).
- III. To give man a better life (John 10:10; 6:51)
- IV. To build His church (Acts 20:28; Eph. 5:25).
- V. To fulfill the Law of Moses (Eph. 2:15; Col. 2:14; Rom. 7:4).
- VI. To give a new law (Heb. 8:8-9; 10:9).
- VII. To save those faithful ones of the Old Testament (Heb. 9:15; Gal. 4:4-5).
- VIII. To bring unity (John 10:6; Eph. 2:14-16).

Conclusion

- I. Ultimately, Jesus died because God loved us (1 John 4:19).
- II. The aforementioned reasons are just some to help us understand that love.
