

Living The Greatest Commandment

(Mark 12:28-31)

10/20/24 AM/PM Sermon

Love God With All Your Heart

- Being a Christian is a life of Emotion
 - My love for God is to extend out of every affection I have
- God expects my Heart to be engaged in:
 - My Conversion to Christ (Rom. 6:17)
 - My Exaltation of God in worship (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16; 2 Cor. 9:7)
 - My Proclamation of the gospel (Rom. 9:1-3; 10:1-3)
 - My Affection for each other (1 Pet. 1:22; 1 John 3:17)

Love God With All Your Soul

- Being a Christian is a life of Devotion
 - My love for God is to extend out of everything that is me
- God expects my Devotion to move me to:
 - Revere God (Luke 1:46; Phil. 1:20; 1 Cor. 10:31; Heb. 12:28)
 - Adhere to my brethren (Acts 4:32; 14:22; Rom. 12:4-5; John 17:20-23)
 - Persevere to the end (Heb. 6:11-20; 12:1-3; 1 Pet. 4:19)
 - Steer Clear from this world (1 Pet. 2:11-12; Jam. 4:4)

Love God With All Your Mind

- Being a Christian is a life of Notion
 - My love for God is to extend out of every thought I have
- God expects my Thoughts to be:
 - Biblical (1 Cor. 1:10; 4:6; Phi. 4:8; Col. 3:1-2)
 - Humble (Rom. 12:3, 16; Phi. 2:1-8)
 - Personal (Gal. 6:1, 3; 1 Tim. 4:16; 1 Cor. 10:12-13)
 - Helpful (1 Pet. 3:7; Phi. 1:27; 1 Cor. 8:1-11)

Love God With All Your Strength

- Being a Christian is a life of Motion
 - My love for God is to extend out of every ability I have
- God expects my Strength to be demonstrated in:
 - My Contribution (2 Cor. 9:1-2; 8:3-5)
 - My Protection (1 Pet. 4:8)
 - My Exertion (Phi. 2:12-13)
 - My Contention (Jude 3)
